Unity Seen Negro Need At Newark

Black Power Held Work Symbol By Top Rights Leaders

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — From black nationalists to the NAACP, about 600 delegates to the first national conference on black power are gathered here today intent on making the once-divisive slogan a working symbol of Negro unity.

All whites, including newsmen, were formally excluded from all working sessions and delegates, including the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee's Chairman H. Rapp Brown, were asked not to give individual news conferences.

But the tone of the orientation session Thursday set by Negro comedian Dick Gregory and Los Angeles black nationalist Ron Karenga, was not so much anti-white as problack and antiwhite exploitation.

Some speakers pointed out what they considered absurdities in the way the United States expects its nonwhite citizens to behave.

"If whitey thinks he's going to send me to Vietnam to risk my life for instant freedom for a man who looks more like me than he (whitey) does while my wife and kids back home get freedom on the installment plan, he's got to be sick," Gregory said to a storm of applause.

The main question, to be debated over three days in a series of 14 concurrent workshops, is what sort of action and organization Negroes should unite behind.

"Everybody knows whitey's a devil, the question is what are you going to do about it?" asked Karenga.

Delegates come from almost all political factions of the Negro community.

Some of those present Thursday included William Booth, chairman of the New York City Commission on Human Rights; James Farmer, former national director of the Congress of Racial Equality and his black power.

Budget Set Up At $126,176 In Wellsville

Meeting in special session Thursday night, Wellsville Council approved a tentative $126,176 budget for 1968. The anticipated revenue is $127,660.

The figures compare with this year's general fund receipts of $144,000 against expenditures of $133,000.

The drop in revenue was attributed to two factors — less expected revenue in land and rents and $7,000 less in liquor license fees since the state has discontinued its practice of charging permit holders on a staggered, pro-rated basis and is establishing a common date for payment by all holders.

Provided in the budget are pay raises, the amount as yet unannounced, for all elected officials — council, auditor, treasurer, city solicitor and mayor — and the clerk of council. Elected officials may not vote themselves pay increases during their terms of office.

A caucus meeting preceded the special session.

Restudy Pressed For $26,000 Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., asked the Senate today to reconsider the suddenly controversial appointment of Simon F. McHugh, husband of a former secretary to President Johnson, as a member of the Subversive Activities Control Board.

Williams made his motion in a Senate that was as sparsely attended as the Monday session at which McHugh's nomination for the $26,000-a-year job was confirmed without dissent.

The Delaware senator also proposed that President Johnson be asked to return to the Senate the nomination papers approved Monday.

The five-man board—born 17 years ago during the country's anti-Communist upheavals—today has virtually nothing to do.

McHugh, 29, came on the job — what there is of it—Monday, 11 months after his marriage to Victoria McCammon, then one of President Johnson's favorite secretaries. He previously had been a $17,550 civil servant in the Small Business Administration.

Thursday, McHugh landed on the front page of the Wall Street Journal in a story that said rather flatly McHugh had been appointed to the plush job because of the marriage—and with the help of some greased skids through the Senate confirmation.

McHugh was unavailable for comment about the story. The White House press secretary, George Christian, called it a hatchet job and commented that "certainly the President's knowledge of an appointee is an important factor."

The incident provoked one member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Sen. Gordon L. Allott, R-Colo., to label the McHugh appointment "an outrage and a disgrace." As a taxpayer, Allott said, he was burned up.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said the confirmation to the five-year term was handled routinely, with no pressure from the White House to speed or assure success.

But teapot tempest or not, the McHugh story focused attention on a board that has become something of an anachronism and has borne out former President Harry S. Truman's prophecy that the Communist registration law would be unenforceable.

The board was supposed to

Wellsville Superintendent Resigns

Myers Will Become Head Of Streetsboro Schools

Lowell B. Myers has resigned as superintendent of Wellsville schools to assume a similar position in Streetsboro, just north of Kent.

Myers, 38, has been given a three-year contract with a salary of $15,500 the first year, $16,000 the next and $16,500 the third. His present salary in Wellsville is $11,840.

He will supervise a school system employing 140 and with an anticipated enrollment of 2,800. Anticipated enrollment at Wellsville is 1,955, with 100 employees on the payroll.

Myers said the district maintains a new high school and two new elementary schools. A $1,587,000 bond issue was recently passed there, he explained, providing for the planned construction of a 15-room elementary school.

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese and South Korean troops reported killing 380 Communist soldiers in two savage battles Friday while, over North Vietnam, American carrier pilots blasted three MIGs from the sky and probably downed a fourth.

The aerial action was the first significant dogfight over the North in six weeks.

South Vietnamese headquarters said an elite airborne battalion killed 240 enemy soldiers in northernmost Quang Tri Province along the coastal plain in a fight with what was evidently a Communist battalion of about 500 men. The Communists were reported to have abandoned 89 weapons on the field.

About 100 miles to the south in coastal Binh Dinh Province, troops of South Korea's White Horse Division overran jungle headquarters of the Viet Cong's 95th Regiment and reported killing 140 guerrillas. They captured 70 weapons.

The Koreans were still in pursuit of scattered guerrilla forces at last report. They said their losses were light.

The South Vietnamese did not announce their casualties.

Heavy Communist weapons losses in both fights indicated clear-cut victories for the allies.

U.S. Command announced two American coastal amphibious assaults to seek out Communist units which have avoided battle for 11 days. The landings were in the Mekong delta and just below the demilitarized zone.

Two American Crusader jets were shot up in the air battle 20 miles north of Haiphong but made it safely back to the carrier Bon Homme Richard in the Tonkin Gulf 130 miles off the North Vietnamese coast.

It was the first big air battle since the North Vietnamese virtually grounded their air force six weeks ago after losing five jets within three days. Eight MIGs came out last Wednesday but fled when fired on by Air Force pilots.

The Navy Crusader pilots were flying cover ahead of other jets coming in to attack a fuel dump when about eight MIG17s "popped up out of the clouds."

For the next seven minutes the opposing fliers—each group numbered about eight planes—criss-crossed the skies with rockets and cannon fire.

The American pilots reported that they saw three of the MIG pilots eject from stricken planes. They believed a fourth pilot also ejected but this claim remained a "probable" pending evaluation of gun films aboard the Bon Homme Richard.

The MIGs were felled by heat-seeking Sidewinder missiles and 20mm cannon fire from the Crusaders. Two of the Crusaders flew back to the carrier with gaping holes evidently caused by the MIGs' 20mm cannon, but none of the American pilots was hit.

of Poway, Calif. Lt. (J.G.) Philip W. Dempewolf of Bellevue, Iowa, was credited with the probable.

It was the first such credit for all the pilots except Hubbard who now has one confirmed kill and two MIGs damaged.

Despite the battle overhead, other Skyhawk pilots from the Bon Homme Richard pressed ahead with their raid on the fuel dump at Ta Xa. There was no immediate assessment of damage nor any announcement of planes downed.

In the ground war, the U.S. Command announced that an American Marine battalion of about 1,000 men went ashore from assault boats about 20 miles below the 17th Parallel between North and South Vietnam, while a similar U.S. Army force was landed in the Mekong delta paddyfields of Long An Province about 20 miles south-east of Saigon.

Avella Area Man Victim Of Collision

Second Motorist Hospitalized Here; Toll Mounts To 28

A 25-year-old Pennsylvania motorist was killed and another driver hospitalized in a head-on auto collision in Beaver County at 7:10 a.m. today.

The victim was Robert Romanetti, 25, of Avella RD 2, who was en route to work at an area plant.

Leroy Earl Preston, 21, of 39 Church St., Burgettstown, the other driver, was admitted to City Hospital with injuries suffered in the crash on Route 18 in Hanover Township, about two miles south of Route 30.

It was the 28th traffic fatality of the year in the county.

The Carnegie barracks of the Pennsylvania state police conducted the investigation, Dr. John W. Colavincenzo, county coroner, said.

Dr. Colavincenzo said Mr. Romanetti was pronounced dead at the scene. He suffered a basal skull fracture and other injuries.

The collision occurred on the crest of a small hill, with "the cars shoved together like an accordion," the coroner said.

Preston suffered lacerations, abrasions, contusions and possible internal injuries, but was listed in "good" condition by the coroner.

The Thompson Funeral Home at Avella is in charge of funeral arrangements for Mr. Romanetti.

Train Takes Life Of Nobel Prize Winner

DURBAN, South Africa (AP) — Chief Albert Luthuli, 68, Nobel Peace Prize winner seven years ago, died today of injuries suffered when he was hit by a train.

The accident occurred at Stanger, about 30 miles north of here.

He was struck by a freight train on a railway bridge near Gledhouse station while walking on the tracks.

Luthuli won the Nobel Prize for 1960. This was a bombshell in South Africa, where the white supremacy government had confined him to his native town of Grootville.

Powell Heads Home For Contempt Appeal

NEW YORK (AP)—Deposed Congressman Adam Clayton Powell was en route to New York today to begin an attempt to appeal a criminal contempt of court citation against him.

It was learned that Powell, due to arrive at Kennedy Airport at 11:32 a.m., will be met at the airport by the New York County sheriff, who will place him under technical arrest. A Powell confidant said Powell would not be detained.

Tax Increase Plan Nearing Final Shape

Bill May Be Given Congress Within 10 Days, Reports Say

WASHINGTON (AP) — Indications grew today that the administration is putting finishing touches on its plans for a tax increase.

Government economists, armed with a late string of statistics, contended the economy is strong, buoyant and moving toward the boom they predicted last January.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler and Undersecretary Joseph M. Barr huddled late Thursday with Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee in Mills' office. And Fowler is expected to remain available this weekend for any possible high level conference on taxes.

One source said a formal tax bill could be sent to Congress within 10 days.

President Johnson proposed a 6 per cent surtax on income taxes last January to help pay for the Vietnam war, hold down interest rates and stem inflationary pressure from the boom economists said was coming.

Johnson has not sent a formal tax message or tax legislation to Congress but at a news conference this week he reaffirmed his intention to do so. He said the 6 per cent rate he proposed in January could be adjusted.

Severe Storm Hits Lisbon Area

LISBON — A severe hailstorm devastated local gardens, field corn and standing grain about 1 p.m. Thursday in the center of Columbiana County.

The largest stones were almost the size of cherries. They most a degree a minute when the storm hit — from 88 degrees at 1 o'clock to 63 at 1:30.

Manholes choked with leaves and debris could not handle the heavy rain and water ran over the sidewalks and the crown of streets. Maple St. was flooded and water ran into cellars.

Children went wading, but soon hopped about from one foot to the other because of the coldness of the water.

Joe D. Pittman, Columbiana County extension agent for agriculture, said the storm seems to have centered on Lisbon and the immediate neighborhood.

Henry Siefke, an orchardman on Route 172 near here, said he never saw such a hailstorm. He said the stones caused damage, but it is too early to say how much.

Pittman said the stones stripped some cornfields. Local gardeners said their crops "took a battering." Some had tomatoes ripening.

It's 'Go' For Picnics During The Weekend

Get out the picnic baskets! Another pleasant weekend is in prospect.

The weatherman says it will be mostly sunny Saturday, with seasonable temperatures.

It will be generally fair tonight, with the low in the middle 60's.

Soviet Seeks Arab OK On UN Proposal

Compromise Urged On Withdrawal Of Israeli Army Units

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union was reported trying to persuade Arab nations today to accept a U.S.-supported compromise linking the withdrawal of Israeli occupation forces with the end of the Arabs' 19-year-old state of war against Israel. But the Arabs, led by Syria and Algeria, were reported adamantly resisting the Soviet pressure.

The 122-nation General Assembly, seeking agreement on a resolution before it ends its five-week emergency session on the Middle East crisis, was to meet this afternoon. Some diplomats expected another quick adjournment.

Heavy Fog Is Blamed For District Mishap

HAMMONDSVILLE — Heavy fog was blamed for a one-car accident on Route 213 early this morning in which a utility pole was scraped and extensive damage done to an auto.

Winterville highway patrolmen said a 1961 sedan operated by Ernest Leroy Rose, 35, of Hammondsville RD 1, west-bound on Route 213, attempted a left turn onto County Road 50. Dense fog reportedly caused Rose to begin his turn too quickly and hit a utility pole.

Rose was uninjured.

The Perils Of Percy
SHERBORNE, England (AP) — Percy, the racing pigeon, left by the wrong door when the inmates of his loft were released for their daily flight and flew into the jaws of a terrier.
Minus a feather or two, he made a quick getaway into another home Thursday, where the housewife was doing the family wash.
She screamed, and Percy nosed into the washing machine.
Round and round went Percy and the wash. But the bird managed to keep his head above water.
He was retrieved, balded, cleaner and mostly unharmed to dry out in the sun.

US. Places Silver Coins Into Reserve
WASHINGTON (AP) — The government quietly is withdrawing from circulation some of the old dimes and quarters containing 90 per cent silver.
They could be pumped back in during the Christmas shopping rush this year.
Officials say they have no plans to recall the 90 per cent silver coins in the wake of a Treasury Department decision to free the price of silver from its four-year level of $1.29 an ounce.
They described the new move as a contingency to handle any emergencies which might occur late this year or during 1968.
No announcement of the withdrawal into a coin stockpile has been made but officials said it's been going on for some time.
When silver coins find their way back to a Federal Reserve Bank in their normal course of circulation, officials said, they are held in reserve rather than recirculated.
The new copper-nickel sandwich coins — less likely to be set aside by collectors — are circulated instead.
One official gave three reasons for the move:
— To insure a stockpile of coins for possible use during the upcoming Christmas season when the demand for coins reaches its yearly peak.
— To gather a stockpile of silver should the Treasury need it to redeem silver certificates before the redemption deadline next June 30.
— To make certain enough silver is available to satisfy the strategic stockpile quota of 165 million ounces.
Officials emphasize they believe enough new type coins are available to satisfy needs but want an extra safety valve just in case.
The price of silver shot this week to more than $1.80 an ounce after the Treasury last Friday stopped selling it to private industry at $1.29. It now is selling up to 2 million ounces weekly to industry at the going market price.
The idea in maintaining the price of silver at $1.20 was to preserve the coinage. But officials said enough of the silver-less coins now are available to satisfy needs if the silver content coins should disappear from circulation.
With the price of silver exceeding $1.80 an ounce the old dimes and quarters are worth more in silver than their face value. The melting point — the price at which the silver content equals the face value — is $1.38 an ounce for the old dimes, quarters and half dollars and $1.29 for silver dollars.
But since half dollars still are in short supply there is little use in trying to stockpile them.
The Treasury has barred the melting, treating or export of silver coins as another safety factor. This offense can be punished by a maximum $10,000 fine and five years in jail.
Antilles is another name for the West Indies.

ment until Saturday or Monday to give the compromise efforts more time.
East European sources said the Russians were attempting to reach a compromise on the basis of a modification of the Latin-American resolution they rejected earlier. It called for Israel to pull its troops out of Egypt, Jordan and Syria if the Arabs ended their state of belligerency, and informed sources said the revised draft preserved the principle of reciprocity.
Despite the reported Soviet reversal and the Arabs' dependence on the Russians to make up their losses in the June 5-10 war, diplomats said Algeria and Syria were holding out for an assembly demand for unconditional withdrawal of Israeli forces. This along with the Latin-American resolution failed on July 4 to muster the two-thirds majority necessary for approval.
In Tel Aviv, informed sources said Soviet arms shipments to Egypt to replace losses in the war have included limited numbers of the new MIG23 and Sukhoi 9 fighters, as well as about 200 earlier models of the aircraft and quantities of tanks and artillery. Israeli estimates put Egyptian plane losses at about 500.
In London, where reports of Soviet wishes for a compromise between Arabs and Israelis arrived from various capitals, British officials appeared convinced that the Soviet military replacements are likely to be far below the level needed for any new Arab campaign.
The Suez Canal cease-fire line was quiet again Thursday.

presumably upward—but no decision has been made.
It's known, however, that alternatives ranging from 6 to 10 per cent have been submitted to the White House. But one source says he still expects the rate to be 6 per cent, at least for individuals.
Government officials are convinced the economy eventually will bear out their request for the tax hike. They said the June figures—completed Thursday by the Commerce Department and showing personal income took its biggest jump since last January—offer some proof of this.
The administration reportedly will seek an effective date for the tax increase of Sept. 1 or Oct. 1. Economists consider Jan. 1 too late.

Pavement Plato Comments

The Best About Women

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "Dear Pavement Plato: "Everybody has been knocking women lately, as if to be one were almost against the law. "All we hear every day is how bad we are. We are accused of pampering ourselves, henpecking our husbands, and spoiling our children. "Surely we aren't altogether bad. We must have some nice qualities. Why doesn't someone tell us what they like about us for a change? That might even inspire us to try to be better. Modern Eve" Not a bad idea, Eve. Woman must have some good qualities or she wouldn't have managed to remain the apple of man's eye since the Garden of Eden.

BUT WHAT ARE they? It's hard to say. What one man finds appealing in a woman another man may find upsets his digestion.

However, at the risk of being regarded as a traitor in some quarters, here are some of the things I like about women:

Most of them no longer sweep dirt under the living-room rug, as they now have vacuum cleaners.

Some of them are fun to walk behind and look at when a fellow doesn't have any big, important world problem on his mind.

They may whimper about small annoyances, but they are as strong as granite under real adversity.

If a big lie is needed to save a social situation, they can tell one without batting an eye.

Merely by the way they throw a baseball they can give a man a vast feeling of superiority.

It is amazing how many things they can keep cooking on a kitchen stove and still manage to get them all done at the same time.

When you take one of them to a restaurant, she can give you sound advice on whether it is better to eat the cantaloupe a la mode with a fork or a spoon.

If your child gets a runny nose, your wife will generally wipe it rather than ask you to. You simply can't beat them for many small chores like this around the house.

A HOMELY MAN becomes bitter and full of secret self-pity about his homeliness, but a homely woman is always sure that there is something beautiful about her. And this is true. Woman is a wiser animal than man. As a man becomes more knowledgeable through experience, he comes to distrust his instincts. A woman rarely does. She retains a blind faith in her instinctual wisdom, which she calls intuition, and there are occasions in life when this gift of nature is a better guide than the precepts taught by experience.

When it comes to getting a button sewed on, there is nothing like a dame. They tend to be forgiving. No matter how shabbily a man has treated a woman, if she loves him he can melt her anger into fondness with the surprise gift of a handful of flowers — or even a mink coat. Women have inherent nobility and grace and self-respect. It is only the standards they set and cling to that keeps our civilization, sorry as it is, from degenerating into a worse jungle. Finally, there is nothing finer to come home to and see, shining in warm loveliness across a candlelit dinner table, than a woman. Well, there I've said it. Those are a few of the things men like about women.

Stock Exchange Reported Staying In New York City

NEW YORK (AP) — City officials and representatives of the New York Stock Exchange have reached a tentative agreement to keep the exchange in the city while reducing the impact of the stock transfer tax, the New York Times said today.

When the controversial tax was increased last year the exchange canceled its option on a new site in Lower Manhattan and threatened to move to New Jersey.

The tentative proposal would require state and city approval of two contemplated changes in the tax and formal agreement from the exchange's board of governors.

The pact would halve the tax over a five-year period for persons living outside the city and place a $550 ceiling on the tax due on single large block transaction by individuals or institutions wherever they are, the Times said.

Runaway Youth Killed In Washington County

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — A Somerset County boy police said had run away from home was killed Thursday in an auto-truck collision at Meadow Lands, Washington County.

State Police identified the victim as Donald L. Hambley, 15, of Hooversville. They said he ran away from home earlier in the day, taking the family car and an older brother's driver's license.

Police said they stopped him on Route 802 in Meadow Lands, but he suddenly pulled away, failed to make a curve and skidded broadside into a tractor-trailer driven by Robert Nellis, 36, of Pittsburgh. Nellis was not hurt, police said.

Earth Tremor Rocks Sections Of Missouri

ST. LOUIS (AP) — An earth tremor of about one minute's duration shook several points in southeastern Missouri early today.

In Poplar Bluff, a deputy of the Butler County sheriff's office said the tremor occurred at 4:15. He said it was so strong it shook plaster loose from the ceiling of the county courthouse.

One of the most severe earthquakes ever recorded in the United States centered in southwest Missouri near New Madrid in 1811. That quake changed the course of the Mississippi River and formed Reelfoot Lake in Tennessee.

2 Assault Cases Heard By Judge At East Palestine

Two East Liverpool area men appeared on separate charges of assault Thursday in Eastern County Court at East Palestine.

Donald Scott of 807 Riley Ave. was found guilty, but the imposition of a $100 and costs fine was delayed by Judge D. Barry Dickson pending Scott's motion for a new trial. The warrant charging him with the assault was signed by Kenneth Seibert and stemmed from an incident June 20.

Leonard Dale Brewer of Westfield Rd. pleaded guilty to an assault charge filed by Margaret Brewer. His case was continued.

In other court cases yesterday, a bench warrant was issued for Frederick Erastus Burton of East Liverpool RD 3, charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Thomas James Reed of Shady Side Ave. was sent to the county drivers' school and had his case continued until Sept. 7 after being charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Also ordered to attend the new school was Shirley June Souder of Rogers RD 1, charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance. Her case also was continued until Sept. 7.

Fined were Joseph E. Stanley of Negley, $15 and costs for speed excessive for conditions, and Kenneth Earl Taubert of 625 Owens Rd., Wellsville, $5 and costs for not having a driver's license in his possession.

Wants Tourists

PATNA, India (AP) — The government of famine-stricken Bihar State has allocated 7 million rupees ($930,000) for the development of tourism during the next four years. One of the popular tourist sites in the east Indian state is Bodhi Gaya, a Buddhist shrine where Lord Buddha is said to have spent many years meditating.

Storm Howls, But Chandler Gets Through

LISBON — The speaker at the Kiwanis Club luncheon Thursday at the Masonic Building faced the competition of the heaviest hailstorm local residents can remember.

Also testing the concentration of E. R. (Pete) Chandler, executive secretary of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce, was an electrical storm with explosive thunder and intermittent breaks in electrical service.

Discussing interesting aspects of industrial development, Chandler said "the most important factor in obtaining new industries, in my opinion, is a few dedicated people. Your best help will come from the utilities."

"The business climate in a community makes a lot of difference," he said. "I daresay there are people in this room who would not want new industries in this area because they are thinking about noise, dirt and odor."

Chandler said his Chamber's latest developments have been on the West Virginia side of the Ohio River "because that is where our available sites are."

Chandler, a native of Lisbon, was a classmate of Dan Myers and James McBride, Lisbon Kiwanians, at Mt. Union College. John P. Wargo was program chairman.

Myers, president, announced there will be no regular meeting next Thursday because Kiwanians will be host to Lisbon's combined service clubs' picnic at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday at Willow Grove Park. A Kiwanis roundtable will be held Thursday noon at the Wick Hotel for those unable to attend the picnic.

Al Heston of Pompano Beach, Fla., Joe Carlucci of Struthers and Ferguson Kind of East Liverpool were guests.

3,000 Mark Cleveland '66 Riot Anniversary

CLEVELAND (AP) — Nearly 1,000 persons paraded through Hough, an East Side Negro slum, Thursday night to commemorate the deaths of four Negroes killed in rioting that rocked the crowded area for five nights last summer.

The paraders, many of them boys and girls, marched along Hough Avenue from East 65th Street to a field created by urban renewal work on Crawford Road, just north of Hough. With more than 3,000 persons at the field, residents named it Joyce Arnett Memorial Park in honor of a mother shot during the riots.

React Team To Hold Two-Day 'Jamboree'

The East Liverpool Borderline React Team will sponsor a Citizens Band Jamboree Saturday and Sunday at the New Waterford Fish and Game Club on Route 46.

Prizes will be offered the camping area will be available. Trophies will be awarded the largest caravan, club and react team along with the oldest licensed operation operator and the one traveling the farthest.

Free coffee will be provided. The grounds will be properly policed, officials said.

Court Fines 4 For Speeding

Four motorists cited by the Highway Patrol on speeding charges paid $110 in fines and costs today in Municipal Court and one was given a 15-day suspension of his operator's permit.

The license suspension, along with a fine of $25 and costs, was ordered by Judge Samuel M. Chertoff in the case of Norman L. Eltringham, 21, of RD 2, who pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding 75 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Freeway. He was cited Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

Daniel P. Chevalier, 21, of Beaver RD 2, who pleaded guilty to driving 75 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone on Route 7, also was fined $25 and costs. Judge Chertoff told Chevalier he also would have suspended his operator's permit, but an Ohio court cannot take such action on a license issued in another state.

Two other defendants paid fines of $15 and costs on speeding charges. They were Mrs. Helen M. Higgins, 41, of Salem RD 1, cited Monday at 9:30 p. m. on Route 30 on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone, and Raymond H. Jhle, 29, of Salineville RD 1, cited Thursday at 9:30 p. m. on Route 7 on a charge of driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

The judge decreed a fine of $25 and costs for Robert M. Waite of 755 Sturgis Ave., who switched his plea from not guilty to "no contest" on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. The charge was filed by Lillian Orincak of 412 Monroe St. as an aftermath of a traffic mishap on July 11.

Mrs. Phyllis Ann Walls, 26, of 402 Richardson Ave., whose auto was involved in a collision Wednesday afternoon on St.

Clair Ave. Ext., was ordered to pay the costs on a charge of failure to transfer vehicle registration. The judge ordered a continuance until Aug. 4 for a second charge of driving without an Ohio operator's permit. Mrs. Walls said she has a West Virginia license.

Sam Vona, 41, of Youngstown forfeited a $32.50 appearance bond on a charge of passing at the intersection of Route 7 and County Rd. 419. He was cited by the patrol Tuesday at 6:40 p. m.

More One-Upmanship

Anyone who thinks Rep. Michael J. Kirwan of Youngstown is about to give up on the Billion Dollar Big Ditch because the planning funds have been slashed by a House Appropriations Commission budget action should re-evaluate his thinking.

Despite opposition by economy-minded Congressmen, the possible reluctance of the Defense Department to back the project while the expenses of the Viet conflict are rising, the outright condemnation by Gov. Raymond Shafer of Pennsylvania and the local authorities whose communities would have to foot much of the bill, Mike will no doubt continue the battle.

The 80-year-old Congressman from Youngstown — whose home city's industries would be the prime beneficiaries of the park-barrel proposition — is a determined man and a politically powerful man.

Chairman of the House public works committee and head of the Democratic Congressional Campaign committee, Rep. Kirwan is in a position to exert much greater influence on promoting his life's goal.

Thus, all the logic which can scotch this zany ditch-digging project will no doubt be called to the fore again and again.

It is not enough to point to the exorbitant costs of the project, the expenses each county and community would pay, the relocation of highways, construction of bridges, losses of taxable property and other punishment Ohio and Pennsylvanian residents would have to absorb just to lower freight rates for Mahoning County.

That such a preposterous scheme could get so far as it did is surprising to many. But don't think that the Big Ditch boondoggle has played its last act in Washington: Mike Kirwan is too much of an expert at one-upmanship to permit it.

Urchek And Kent

Anyone wondering about the direction Kent State University's East Liverpool Academic Center is taking should be reassured by the appointment of Jacob (Jack) Urchek as new center executive, succeeding the popular and capable Jack Hedrick.

Urchek has an extensive background in Kent administration, teaching and civic affairs, and visiting his new "campus" this week, displayed an enthusiasm for the future of the city center which promises no slackening of the continued development of KSU's program here.

Jack will certainly be welcome in East Liverpool — as a personable new arrival and as the figurehead for the burgeoning prospects of higher education in the district.

Something Will Turn Up

The emergency session of the United Nations General Assembly is breaking up with no action on the Arab-Israeli dispute.

No action was possible. It was unthinkable for the General Assembly to approve the results of Israel's crushing defeat of its would-be destroyers. It was impossible for it to disapprove and order the Israelis to retreat and wait for the next onslaught of the Arab bloc.

Therefore, the General Assembly could do no more than make officially the same decision already made unofficially throughout the world. A new status quo has been established in the Middle East, and it could not be changed by anything the United Nations could do.

The General Assembly had no choice but to go home, leaving the dilemma in the lap of the U.N. Security Council, which can't do anything either.

Something will turn up.

Its dimensions are taking shape. They are terrifying.

The Soviet Union is rearming the Arabs. Arab leaders are conferring again on their fixed strategy of destroying Israel. It is the only thought they have.

They do not want to talk peace. They do not want a modus vivendi. They do not want a detente. "Carthage must be destroyed!"

The next time they muster their forces for attack, they will be wary. They will be under more intelligent military supervision. They will not be sitting ducks for a mobile defense that refuses to wait for attack.

The harsh question before the Israelis, the Arab bloc, the United Nations and the world is not what happened the last time but what is going to happen the next time.

It cannot be assumed that Israel will get the great powers off the hook three times in a row by knocking off its would-be destroyer on its own initiative. The next time it might take World War III and millions of casualties to settle the issue.

worst moments about colonialism, including a very bad episode that came to a climax in 1776 when the Declaration of Independence was put into the historical record.

The United States has been hard on Britain in Ireland, India and China. It has excoriated the British as muddlers, Colonel Blimps and blood-letters. It has alternately admired them for their spunk and criticized them for their inability to bow to the inevitable.

And now that the bow to the inevitable is at hand, the United States is accusing its cousins of running out on their responsibilities. It doesn't want the sun to set on the British Empire, lest that make it tougher to keep the sun shining on Old Glory wherever it is fluttering over the site of U.S. commitments from pole to pole, from east to west and vice versa and on every continent.

And now American knows what it must have felt like to be a Briton when everybody on earth had something to say in criticism—never in praise.

TRUMAN TWILL

Letters From Cotton Corners

Dear Nephew: We are well here. Hope you are the same.

Another summer is waning. It's too soon to think about winter, but we have quit thinking about the things we thought about last spring.

Next on the schedule is Dog Days. Then Labor Day. Summer tan will fade. It will be time to send Christmas packages to the boys in Vietnam.

Politicians will start their autumnal clatter, trying to convince us we should vote for them, provided we vote for anybody. We will look them over and decide to stay home from the polls.

One day we will notice we are eating supper after dark, and it will be a question where to eat Thanksgiving dinner and whether to do the Christmas shopping early, or wait until the last minute, as usual.

Morale will go down with the descent of winter gloom and taxes will go up. We will have sized up another batch of TV fare for another winter season. The critics will be sniffing at it superciliously and the rest of us will be eating it up with gusto.

The first bales of hay will be dropped on storm-bound cattle in the grazing states. Behemoths will be cracking heads together on sloppy gridirons, and our wealthy friends will be flitting to Florida.

In all probability, I will buy a new pair of galoshes because I have had good mileage out of a pair I bought five years ago. There will be a frantic search for my dress-up gloves, and I will incur your Aunt Effie's scorn by buying three more pairs of work gloves at the supermarket when she lets me tag along to help her push the cart.

I will set aside books to read during the long evenings, but I will fall asleep over them as usual, or I will cose the book and give my undivided attention to something more interesting on the boob tube.

Meanwhile, our Red friends will be doing us dirt all over the world, and we will be continuing our crusade to do good in swamps, jungles, plains, mountains, deserts — wherever our Red friends show up.

Other manifestations of ideological struggle will be visible wherever we look. They will have different names and the crusades undertaken in those names will take different forms. But it will be essentially the same struggle between what is and what might be if what is could be eliminated and what might be put into its place.

As I sit here on an evening of another waning summer and think about what we can expect if all goes well, I am contented and sanguine about the outcome.

The big thing is to keep breathing and not get the idea the sky is falling. If it ever does, it will be too late to worry about it anyway.

Your Aunt Effie has just called out to tell me to ask you if you think it is too late for her to buy a bikini bathing suit at an end-of-summer clearance sale.

Against my better judgment, I am relaying the question. Please use your best judgment. Regards to the folks.

Odd Facts

Shrapnel, as a form of military charge, was invented by Lt. Henry Shrapnel (1761-1842). The shell, containing a number of balls and a charge of powder that burst the shell, was first used by the British Army in Surinam in 1804.

The only item in the White House which has been there since the time of its first occupancy by President John Adams in 1800 is the famous full-length portrait of George Washington by Gilbert Stuart.

Spanish moss is not a moss, but a graceful herb that hangs low from trees in southern United States and tropical America. It has many long slender mosslike stems which bear small leaves and yellow flowers. The stems sometimes are 20 feet long. It is used as a packing and stuffing material.

Labor Wants Strike Rights

WASHINGTON — The crash had to come. Finally, a union president, soft-spoken Roy Siemiller, who couldn't be pressured, and a President of the U.S., table-pounding Lyndon Johnson, who wouldn't be pressured, met head-on in the rail strike. The stoppage is not the issue. The massive stakes, unseen by the public for the moment, are the issues which will bring collision after collision right through the 1968 election.

What Roy Siemiller, the Machinists' president, is fighting for is big labor's right to strike regardless of what is hit — ball powder plants, painfully vital jet engines, all systems of transportation, aircraft carriers, nuclear submarines, fuel supplies, critical ammunition, the waterfront, rubber, copper and steel mills, jet fighter plane production as well as railroads.

What Siemiller really is fronting for is American labor's demand for the right to strike without interference from the White House or the Congress — Vietnam or no Vietnam.

This, President Johnson — though he's closer to American labor than any other president ever has been — simply cannot permit. There is the war. There is the national election.

THE LABOR LEADERS have their constituencies. The President has his.

So, from his command post inside the White House, he told presidential aide Joe Califano and Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz, among others, to stand pat, telephone (as did Wirtz to Siemiller on Sunday) but don't compromise on the strike. He told the machine gun-tongued Sen. Wayne Morse to hold tight. Thus in seven sessions of the Senate-House conference on the bill, labor's Congressional allies made nine specific efforts to move Morse and the White House. The President did not budge.

Mr. Johnson knew if he did yield to his labor friends, next year would be the most crisis laden-presidential campaign-war-time period since the British burned the White House.

The duel with 137,000 members of six shop craft unions led directly by lame duck Machinists vice president Joe Ramsey is just the first skirmish on the lines. In January, the lines (now led by lame duck negotiator Doc Wolfe) must open their contracts with the tough trainmen, the firemen and enginemen, the switchmen and the railway clerks.

Most of them, especially Charles Luna's militant trainmen (largest of the rail unions), would just as soon strike as not for higher wages and new working conditions — especially for more cash.

Then, six months later, just about the time the Jan. 1st crisis ripens, new contracts expire involving the engineers, conductors, brakemen and four "non-ops" (off train railway unions).

MEANWHILE, OF COURSE, Walter Reuther will have heated up the industrial front with his assault on the auto corporations. A few months later he will be plunging back into new attacks on the aerospace and aircraft industry. And finally, the self-effacing, laconic leader of big steel labor, I. W. Abel, will be advancing on the huge steel industry.

These are just the dramatic frontal assaults. Hundreds of vital smaller contracts will be expiring.

What Siemiller and Reuther and Abel want is the unadulterated right to strike without being called in to face the President and a network of his cabinet members, ranging from Dean Rusk, Robert McNamara and Willard Wirtz to the newcomer, Alan Boyd, Secretary of Transportation.

They say, in effect, when the issue of Vietnam is raised — seize the rail lines, take over the aerospace industry, operate the steel plants, if you're going to have Congress run the labor relations business. Siemiller knew that 40 per cent of the Vietnamese military cargo is carried on rail freight cars. But his argument is "seizure" until the lines share some of their profits.

THIS, TOO, will be "Abe" Abel's answer next year. Not too long ago, he told his AFL-CIO Executive Council colleagues that he is sick of being told by the White House that the steelworkers can't strike — and he told them the United Steelworkers of America will walk out in '68 to win big cash increases. Abel means this. He and his late chief Phil Murray called out some 135,000 steelworkers during the height of World War II. There's more here than a rail dispute. The President is boxed in. So he has tossed the hot coal to Congress. They don't want to settle every crisis with a new law. So they'll keep tossing it right back to him. They know that the Machinists now have rollcall votes in the Congress on which to base political action in the next national campaign. And the Machinists won't be alone. They'll all punish their enemies — those who vote for compulsory arbitration — and reward their friends.

As for the presidency, an intimate of Roy Siemiller said the other day "the machinists and their families and a lot of other labor people simply will stay home on Election Day — 1968."

And so there was a mighty collision. But as the late Al Jolson ad-libbed in an old movie, "you ain't heard nothing yet."

The crises are yet to come.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I am writing in regards to your editorial on Monday, July 17, about water for St. Clair Township. May I first say water would be a big help in the development of our township and I am all in favor of a source of pure water with unlimited resources.

I would like to clarify, however, that the township trustees have not been consulted by the county-directed water and sewer commission. We (trustees) are in no way connected with this present program. However, may I at this time suggest the commission come to our township meeting and consult with us before considering excavation on our township roads.

As an interested party, I attended the public hearing on June 29 held at the county courtroom at which time I questioned the "water authorities" about the possibility of sources other than city water. Mr. Bloomgren was the only one who appeared to have any knowledge of an attempt to harness water for township use. He said an engineering firm had given a very high estimated cost to dam up Beaver Creek. He did have trouble remembering the engineering firm's name or address; no one else seemed to know either.

I suggested the possibility of damming Long's Run creek up at the Sprucevale Rd. and backing it up to Routes 7 and 30. Mr. Gard said probably the rock strata in that area would not hold water.

This is an assumption on Mr. Gard's part and I do not feel he was qualified to answer until after an engineering examination.

Also the possibility of community wells was mentioned. I feel these and any other possibility should be examined, however remote, before going ahead. In case of city pump troubles, broken mains, etc., I understand the township is condemned to be the first ones shut off from water to conserve for the city resident. If I were on city Council I would also want this protective clause, and the city should expect a profit for any commodity (water) which is not going to their local taxpayers. This is all well and good, but I feel the county commissioners should shop around before picking up the first price tag available.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

In recent years I have noticed the dire need for some sort of recreational facilities in the Borough of Ohioville, an example being Meadowbrook Estates. In the Estates there are scores of children and not one playground area is available for their use.

Are there no funds available, or is a political bloc involved, or just apathetic parents?

I do not reside in the Borough, but travel there daily. I have seen the playground the children are now using. It is a hard-topped playground, but it is also the roadway. Yes, the roadway, which is used by every motorist in Meadowbrook. It may come as a shock to some of you, but apparently is not unknown to some of the parents of these children.

In more than one instance now I have had to bring my vehicle to a complete stop to permit the children to move off their "playground" so I could continue on my way.

I have seen basketball nets nailed up to telephone poles, and again the roadway was the court.

There is talk of facilities that will be built, but so far, it is all talk. No action has been taken.

I feel that if something isn't done soon, it will be too late.

A certainly hope that it doesn't take a child's life or serious injury to prove the need for playground facilities in Ohioville Borough.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Miss Sara Popin resumed her duties in the office of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles in Columbus after a vacation with her parents at Cannons Mills.

TEN YEARS AGO — Damage was estimated at $7,000 after fire damaged a two-story concrete block and frame house on the Y. & O. Rd. near Route 30 while the family was absent.

Some 80 former students of the old Buchanan School in Hanover Township attended the first annual alumni picnic at Raccoon Creek State Park.

Today's woman has six years more of life expectancy at birth than does a man. She outnumbers men at every age past the mid-twenties, suffers fewer than 60 per cent as many fatalities from heart disease, and has only a fifth as many deaths from accidents in the 20-to-24 age group.

Woman In Coma Has Daughter At Boston Hospital

BOSTON (AP) — Shirley M. Sweeney, 36, of Somerville has given birth to the baby girl she hoped for but may never know.

Mrs. Sweeney has been in a deep coma since February when she suffered a severe brain hemorrhage.

Wednesday physicians at Massachusetts General Hospital helped her deliver a 5-pound 14-ounce baby. They said the baby is healthy and apparently normal in every way, and called her birth a medical rarity.

"A quick check with professors here and in New York revealed no case of a woman comatose so long delivering a healthy child," said Dr. Barry G. Aronson, a neurologist who has cared for Mrs. Sweeney.

Francis M. Sweeney, 50, said his new daughter will be named Mary Elizabeth. The Sweeneys have two other children, Joseph, 4, and Paul, 2.

Mrs. Sweeney's mother, Mrs. Arthur Wise, who is caring for the two other children, said her daughter knew she was pregnant before going into the coma and hoped for a girl.

Mosquito Curbs, Road Funds Requested Of Commissioners

LISBON — County commissioners had conferences Friday with two delegations — one seeking mosquito control, the other financial help for road construction.

Thirteen residents from the northeastern part of Perry Township told the commissioners they are plagued by mosquitoes and asked the board if there is some way the county can help.

The group were Robert A. Oswald, Dr. H. F. Hoprich, Joseph Kornbau, Fred W. Koenreich Jr., Siegfried Wolf, Dr. Paul Corso, D. L. Vincent, Louis J. Raymond, Dr. Frank V. Apicella, Mrs. J. T. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Glendon McKenzie and A. S. Needham.

Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville and Councilmen James B. Phillips, Russell R. Keefe and John E. Call asked the commissioners about financial help toward Wellsville's share of relocating Route 7 through the city.

Liverpool Township trustees advised the commissioners of their opposition to a C1 permit for which Watha M. Bauges

Jr. and Robert R. Lewis, doing business as Marty's Pharmacy, 2271 Lisbon St. Ext., have made application to the Ohio Department of Liquor Control.

Paul D. Cunningham, township clerk, wrote that "a majority of the board" voted against the permit because the pharmacy is too close to a church in LaCroft.

County commissioners receive notice of applications to the state department and advise the political subdivision so it can approve or oppose the request.

The commissioners will advise the state of Liverpool Township's opposition.

At the request of Clerk of Courts Carl L. Stacey, the commissioners voted to employ three senior high school girls enrolled in Cooperative Office Education programs at Leetonia and Lisbon High Schools.

They will be employed for the 1967-68 school year. Two will be from Leetonia, which has had a COE program several years, and one from Lisbon, which is initiating a program in September.

U.S. Sets Court Action To Block ABC-ITT Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department asked a U.S. Court of Appeals today to overturn the Federal Communications Commission's approval of the merger of American Broadcasting Companies, Inc., and International Telephone & Telegraph Corp.

It contended a merger of the two would be "likely to result in substantial detriment to the public."

In a 10-page notice of appeal the department said the FCC "gave undue and unwarranted weight" to assurances by ITT as to the future conduct of the merged companies. ITT had given assurances that it would maintain the substantial autonomy of the ABC network—and in particular its news operation.

The department also rejected one of the principal reasons the commission used in approving the merger—that ABC badly needs money to modernize and that ITT is the only source. The department said this conclusion is not supported by the evidence.

Announcement of the Justice Department's planned action today sent ABC common stocks plummeting Thursday on the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange, while ITT stock prices gained.

The Federal Communications Commission approved the $2.8-billion merger, largest in broadcast history, by a 4-3 vote June 22. That was the same vote by which the FCC had approved the amalgamation last December, only to stay its decision and hold new hearings at the Justice Department's request.

Mooncraft Heads On New Course For Orbit Duties

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Ground controllers today triggered a tiny gas jet aboard America's Lunar Explorer spacecraft and successfully changed its pointing direction as it sped on course toward an orbit around the moon.

"The maneuver worked beautifully," said National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials as the radiation-studying mooncraft passed the three-quarter mark in its 225,608-mile trip through space.

The windmill-shaped craft, officially named Explorer 35, was launched Wednesday from Cape Kennedy. It is to trigger a retro-rocket about 5:30 a.m. (EDT) Saturday to swing it into an orbit around the moon ranging between 800 and 4,500 miles over the lunar surface.

There, for the next two to three years, sensors aboard the 230-pound payload were to study cosmic dust, magnetic fields and potential radiation hazards facing moon-bound astronauts. No camera is aboard.

How do you know you don't have Syphilis?

Most people don't know. In fact, most people aren't quite sure just what Syphilis is, let alone if they've got it.

Contrary to the popular myths, Syphilis is a disease—not a dirty word.

Specifically, Syphilis is a venereal disease. It enters the body through the mucous membrane, spreads throughout the bloodstream, and it may eventually become fatal. This complete cycle can take over 30 years, and most of that time there are no obvious outward signs of it. But there are certain indications of the various stages.

1st stage: A chancre (sore) at the point where infection entered.

2nd stage: Skin rashes on the scalp, sole of foot, palms etc.

3rd stage: Blindness, insanity, heart disease.

Syphilis is contracted almost exclusively from sex relations with infected persons. It is not contracted from dirty toilet seats or public drinking fountains.

And Syphilis is not limited to prostitutes or uneducated people in the slums.

"Nice" people get Syphilis, and spread it to other "nice" people without knowing it. There are approximately 800,000 such unsuspecting Syphilis victims in the country today.

Syphilis is a curable disease. It can be diagnosed by a smear test of the chancre, or by a simple blood test. One shot of penicillin may be enough to cure it in the early stage. Later on a series of shots may be needed.

But there can be no cure without treatment.

As an education service to this community, through the cooperation of Group W, WOHI presents a new series on "The V D Epidemic." Listen to it, Mondays at 7:35 P. M.

Ball Field Group To Pick Officers

Officers and a board of directors will be elected Aug. 7 by a civic group formed to build a new ball field for youths in Hookstown, Greene Township and surrounding areas.

Plans for the election were made this week during a session in the Hookstown fire station.

David Malcomb was hired to grade the field for a baseball diamond, while Richard Chambers and Bevy Wright were appointed to assist him in determining boundaries.

Bills totaling $9.32 were ordered paid.

City Realtors Rap New Bill

The East Liverpool Board of Realtors has joined with similar groups throughout Ohio in opposing new sales tax legislation pending in the state General Assembly as "a threat to housing costs."

President George Bright said "a vigorous campaign to alert home owners of the danger" was outlined during an emergency meeting of the local board this week.

Bright, as spokesman for the board, said the proposal would add $200 to $300 to the price of an average home selling for $20,000 to $30,000, "or lose that much in equity for the seller if he is the one who pays the tax."

"This is in addition to the higher production costs for new homes, the higher real estate tax, the commissions and normal closing costs," he pointed out. His statement continues:

"Technically, this is called a transfer tax. But really it is simply a sales tax."

"It was expected that builders, already burdened with new higher costs for labor, land and material, would add this new cost to the price of the home."

"The bill permitting each county to impose this tax, is sponsored by the administration. It was tossed into the legislative hopper a week ago without publicity. Many legislators said they did not know it was in committee."

"The steering committee of ROC, legislative arm of the state group, met in Columbus last Monday in emergency session to formulate plans to oppose the new legislation."

"J. D. Sawyer, president of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards, has declared against the proposed tax. 'We view this as another real estate tax which will penalize those who work and strive for home ownership. Real estate already is carrying too heavy a tax burden.'"

Bright noted that sellers of homes on FHA and VA loans are now paying two to six points (one point is 1 per cent cost for a loan which must be paid immediately). He added that the new tax would add heavily to such a home sale.

"Home owners should make their views known to their state representatives and senators," he concluded.

Habeas Writ Planned In Brazil Banishment

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — An attorney for publisher Helio Fernandes, banished for a bitter editorial attack on the late former President Humberto Castello Branco, says he is asking the Brazilian supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus.

Fernandes was banished Thursday to the desolate island of Fernando de Noronha, 225 miles off Brazil's northeast coast. A front-page editorial in his paper after Castello Branco was killed in a plane collision Tuesday said the former president was calculating and merciless and humanity lost nothing by his death.

Last year Castello Branco stripped the 44-year-old publisher, a frequent critic of the government, of his political rights.

Pact Signed At Firestone

CLEVELAND (AP) — It's three down and two to go. A United Rubber Worker spokesman said Thursday after the union and Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. agreed to a tentative three-year contract.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and Uniroyal resume negotiations with the URW today in Cincinnati. The two companies employ some 43,000 workers.

Firestone, the B.F. Goodrich Co. and the General Tire & Rubber Co. all settled within one week for the same basic contract, setting a pattern that could be followed by the last two firms.

A Firestone spokesman said it was the "largest package negotiated in 30 years."

If ratified, the company said, 17,000 production workers in 11 plants will go back to work as rapidly as facilities can be reopened and schedules established.

The Firestone settlement came in the 91st day of the strike, longest in the industry's history. Firestone, Goodrich and Uniroyal were struck April 21, General June 22 and Goodyear July 13.

The hourly wage hike in the Firestone settlement is 43 cents over three years, with skilled workers getting an extra 10 cents the first year. Top hourly rate is now $3.88. The contract expires April 20, 1970.

No exact date has been set for ratification votes, a union spokesman said.

Also, there was an increase to 80 per cent of normal pay for supplement benefits to laid off workers, six weeks vacation after 30 years service and five weeks after 22 years.

There was a $1,000 increase to $7,500 in company-paid life insurance and hospital expense payments for two years instead of the former one year, plus a $10-a-week increase in sickness and accident insurance.

Operations at General's Akron plant resumed Thursday.

Yeah, Groovy's The Word, Man—Just Hang A Sam

DETROIT (AP) — Bring your bod over tomorrow and we'll hop in my pig, catch the rays and have a boss time.

If that makes sense to you, then you're hip (which is an outdated word) to the latest in teen-age talk, which they call slangage.

The bod is the body—yourself; the pig is a car that looks powerful but has a small engine; catching the rays is getting a suntan; and boss is the same as great.

A Detroit News survey of teen-age talk uncovered these gems, and more.

For example: "I'm weak means I'm shocked; bag it means forget it; freak means fine; jacked up means ruined; just can't cut it means just can't bear it.

If you're in your pig and you hang a Louie, you've just turned left, man. If you hang a Ra'ph, it's a right turn, hang a Sam is go straight and hang a Ulysses means make a U-turn.

If you understand it all, then you're groovy—which is what cool and neat used to mean.

Protest Lodged In Ball Game

WASHINGTON (AP) — The annual congressional baseball game hasn't even been played and already Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona, manager-pitcher for the Democrats, has lodged a protest.

Udall said Thursday he has received reports that Republicans have been practicing for Wednesday's contest at D.C. Stadium.

"This is another of the typically devious and unsportsmanlike tactics of the GOP," he charged.

Rep. Silvio O. Conte of Massachusetts, veteran manager of the Republicans, wouldn't say whether the charge was true. But he described some of the pitches Rep. Robert H. Michel of Illinois planned to throw at the Democrats.

"There is the Johnson credibility gap ball," Conte said. "It appears to be something more than it really is."

Another pitch up Michel's sleeve, Conte continued, is "the McNamara escalator which approaches the batter knee high and rapidly rises out of sight."

But Udall said he would enter the game prepared with several pitches of his own.

"There's the Romney fade-away," he warned. "This is a pitch which starts out in a sharp upward trajectory, appears to change position several times on the way to the plate, but ends up dropping sharply to the turf."

"And," Udall added, "there is the Nixon slider, a sneaky pitch which always comes inside and low."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's argument for an income tax surcharge has received another boost from Commerce Department figures showing personal income during June advanced to a record annual rate of $621.9 billion.

The June figure, paced by rising wages and salaries, represents a monthly advance of $3.7 billion, the biggest jump since January's $5.4-billion advance. Personal income has continued to rise throughout the economic sluggishness of the first half of 1967.

Johnson contends a surtax of at least six per cent is needed, partly to combat inflation during an economic upsurge expected in the second half of the year.

Hit-Skip Case Damages Rig

A Pennsylvania tractor-trailer rig was damaged in a hit-skip crash at 2:38 a.m. today on the Chester Bridge approach at E. 3rd St., police reported.

Ronald Frederick of Charleston told officers he was turning onto E. 3rd St. after leaving the bridge when his 1964 model rig was struck by a turquoise-colored sedan proceeding in the opposite direction.

Frederick said the collision damaged the two right rear wheels of the rig, owned by the Nardi Construction Co. of Bridgeville. He said the sedan, which proceeded without stopping, probably is damaged about the left front.

Two cars were damaged in a mishap Thursday at 9:20 p.m. on the City Hospital emergency room parking lot, officers said.

A backing 1960 four-door sedan driven by Raymond E. Masters, 40, of Fairview Rd., Chester, bumped a parked 1961 four-door sedan owned by Virginia Watkins of Homestead Ave., officers said.

The mishap damaged the right rear fender and bumper of the Watkins car and caused a small dent in the left side of Masters' rear bumper, police said.

Removal Of 'Junkies'

CHARLESTON (AP) — Rusting hulks of junked autos abandoned along highways are being removed by the Farmers Home Administration, Gov. Hulet Smith has announced.

FHA State Director A. James Manchin is heading the drive to remove junked cars, Smith stated.

The FHA already has disposed of more than 200 abandoned autos in Marion County, Smith added.

Tentative goals call for removal of 1,500 cars in the state this year, Manchin said.

The state drive is being coordinated with a nationwide FHA effort.

Dedication Held For New Florida De-Salting Plant

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — A water desalting plant that will take city drinking water from the sea has been officially dedicated by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey but it still is not in full operation.

Preparations are under way for the 30-day test during which the plant will be required to operate at full capacity — 2.6 million gallons a day — for a month before it is accepted by the Florida Keys Aqueduct Commission.

"This plant demonstrates we are putting science and technology to work for man's living rather than for man's dying," Humphrey said Thursday before pushing a button that sent desalted water in a display 75 feet into the air over the Atlantic surf.

Humphrey said that by 1960 nuclear-powered plants capable of pumping a billion gallons of fresh water daily at 10 cents a thousand gallons will be operating.

The cost of water from the Key West plant is estimated at 85 cents a thousand gallons. Until the desalting plant is in full operation most of the potable water for Key West comes to the islands through an 18-inch water line from springs at Florida City south of Homestead.

Shooting Erupts Anew In Village Of Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Greek and Turkish Cypriots exchanged fire for more than three hours late Thursday night at the village of Ayios Theodoros in southern Cyprus.

A U.N. spokesman said no casualties were reported on either side. He said it was believed the shooting was between villagers and that no regular troops took part.

Angry Congress

LBJ Programs In Trouble

By CARL P. LUEBSDOERF

WASHINGTON (AP) — "This Congress may be regarded in history as the angry Congress," one Democratic House member said this week — and worried administration floor leaders could begin to fear he's right.

Action taken by the House on three bills this week, added to the slim record of the last seven months, sounded still another warning that the Johnson administration is in deep legislative trouble, especially in the House.

Some Democrats have talked seriously about finishing up necessary appropriations business and adjourning, but three big fights lie ahead — antipoverty, foreign aid and taxes.

The first two are "must" administration bills if the programs are to continue at all. The last, President Johnson indicated this week, is in almost the same category although it could be put off until 1968.

The comment about the angry temper of Congress came from Rep. John G. Dow, D-N.Y., who was making a vain effort to stem passage Wednesday of the so-called antiriot bill, which members pushed through 347 to 70.

Less than 24 hours later they turned on a $40-million administration proposal to help cities exterminate rats and voted 207 to 176 against even bringing it up for debate.

It marked the first time since 1961 the House refused consideration of a measure by rejecting the resolution from the Rules Committee setting terms of the debate. In 1961, the measure was an emergency school aid bill.

Tuesday, Republicans scored another success when they succeeded for the second time this year in amending an appropriations bill with their pet amendment to restrict expenditure of funds to 95 per cent of the amount appropriated.

The amendment was attached to the bill providing money for the new Department of Transportation. Its effect was unclear, since some of the money in the bill is for future years, but it demonstrated again the increased GOP punch in the 90th Congress.

DeGaulle Heads For Quebec After Visit To Islands

ST. PIERRE (AP) — French President Charles de Gaulle cruised through the Gulf of St. Lawrence toward Quebec today, leaving behind the tiny, eight-island remnant of France's North American empire.

During his enthusiastically received 10-hour visit Thursday, De Gaulle acknowledged that there are economic problems on St. Pierre, Miquelon and the six other drab chunks of French territorial rock off the Newfoundland coast and said France would help.

He made no specific promises to the 5,500 islanders, whose chief activity is cod fishing, but said France has a duty to them and "will do what she must." He said he was willing to discuss economic development with their representatives.

One economic step the islanders are eager to take is to become a port of call for foreign fleets fishing on the nearby Grand Banks. If the islands were fully outfitted with freezing and storing facilities, the trawlers could deposit their catch and leave the long-distance hauling to other vessels.

De Gaulle returned Thursday evening to the French cruiser Colbert, which with its destroyer escort headed toward a rendezvous with two Canadian destroyers assigned to escort the president to Quebec City.

He is scheduled to arrive Sunday to begin a five-day official visit to Quebec City, Montreal and Ottawa.

It is the air which causes silver to tarnish.

FACT:

Contrary to widespread belief, it is not exposure to the air which causes silver to turn dark and tarnish, but the presence of gases such as hydrogen sulphide and other smoke impurities. Incidentally, frequent use and handling is the best way to prevent tarnishing and keep a gleaming luster on your silver!

CONCLUSION:

Whether you want a lovely sterling pattern for your table, or practical and beautiful stainless ware, you'll find your choice in our selection. Come in!

400-Lb. Bell Taken

From Carolina Church

TURKEY, N.C. (AP) — A 400-pound bell hoisted to the top of the new Wilson Chapel church in this tiny rural community last week is missing.

A crane was used to put the 70-year-old bell in place in the 35-foot-high steeple. How it was removed is a mystery.

Duplin County Deputy George Merritt says residents have posted an $80 reward for return of the bell.

Skin Problems Plague Teens

Teens with skin blemishes, brush your hair off your forehead and let's see what science has to offer. If you have acne, go to a skin specialist, a dermatologist. Or seek help at a clinic. There is help for you.

There are things you can do on your own. It is important to keep skin clean - acne - prone skin hygienically clean. Wash with medicated soap, rinse thoroughly with tepid water. Pat skin dry, don't rub. Then use a lotion prescribed by the doctor. Let the word "clean" apply to everything that touches your face - clean hands, handkerchief, gloves, powder puff. Don't powder over old makeup; carry medicated towelettes. Shampoo your hair several times a week. Turn dryer to warm, not to hot. Keep your bangs off your forehead and side curls off face.

YOUR DIET should be high in protective nutrients and one that prevents excessive weight gain. A teen - ager who continues to gain too much weight almost never gets rid of the acne for the foods that cause the gain often contribute to the acne.

Here are the common offenders: chocolate in all forms, nuts, peanut butter, greasy foods, pastries, ice cream, rich milk, coffee and cola beverages. Avoid iodized salt. You may complain that the foods listed are all the foods you live on.

Shift to a balanced diet that includes plenty of vegetables, particularly green and yellow for Vitamin A, and citrus fruits and juices for Vitamin C. Have lean meat, fish and chicken (minus the skin), and once a week have liver. Use skim milk or fat - free buttermilk, whole - grain cereal and bread and margarine or butter. Drink plenty of water between meals. Be sure to get outdoor exercise daily.

ACNE TENDS to correct itself after a time. But if you fail to obey the rules, the self-limiting factor extends over a long period and can contribute to scarring.

Resist the temptation to pick or squeeze the affected parts. You run the danger of infection and may get into a mess. There are ways of dealing with scarring, but this is emphatically the responsibility of a dermatologist.

For certain types of acne, antibiotics are the medication of choice. Acne is sometimes a hormonal problem, in which case hormones to bring the glandular system into balance are prescribed.

Acne flares up under stress. Try to counteract stress with plenty of outdoor exercise. The summer sun will help clear up your skin.

Lisbon Chamber Makes Plans For Sales Promotion

LISBON — The Lisbon Area Chamber of Commerce will sponsor "Old - Fashioned Day" here Saturday, Sept. 23.

Plans were outlined by the tourism committee Thursday night at Village Hall, with Chairman Robert McNally in charge.

The committee also plans to publish a pamphlet, with a map of Lisbon and area points of interest on one side and historical information and a list of contributors on the other.

"Old-Fashioned Day" will offer several features — a flea market, sidewalk sales by merchants, a white elephant auction sale and a roving auction from store to store and conducted tours to points of interest.

Planners are encouraging participants to wear old-fashioned dress. Organizations wishing to participate may contact the Chamber office in Village Hall.

Haiti Diplomat Quits, Cites Homeland 'Fear'

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Haiti's ambassador to Mexico, Jules Pierra Audain, says he is resigning his post because of "the seculcher peace now prevailing in my country."

Audain, the dean of the diplomatic corps in Mexico, told newsmen Thursday night he still considers himself a friend of Haitian President Francois Duvalier but plans to stay in Mexico, writing his memoirs and following his former profession as a civil engineer.

The popular diplomat said Duvalier's dictatorship is based on "such a psychosis of fear that nobody dares contradict him." He said he had often advised Duvalier to relax his rule but to no avail.

At Homecoming Party In Dixonville

Former Minister Honored

DELMAS SANFORD, Sunday School superintendent of the First Church of the Nazarene, presented a gift to the Rev. O. L. Benedum, former pastor, during a homecoming party Thursday evening at the Sanford home in Dixonville. The Rev. H. W. Hill, pastor, is at the right.

A homecoming party for the Rev. O. L. Benedum of Lakeland, Fla., former pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Sanford of Dixonville.

Rev. Benedum became pastor of the local church in 1921 when the membership was 132 and in 1937 when he was elected superintendent of the Pittsburgh District the membership had reached 510.

AT THE beginning, the parishioners worshipped in a small brick structure at the corner of St. Clair and Lincoln Avenues, where a service station is now located. A larger church then was erected on the site, where the members worshipped until 1952, when the present house of worship was built at the corner of Walnut St. and St. Clair Ave. Two other churches have branched out from the First Church — one in LaCroft and the other in Gardendale.

For 16 years Rev. Benedum served as superintendent and organized at least 50 new churches. He retired from the position in 1953 and then served as pastor of the Toronto charge for four years.

Following the death of his wife in January 1965, he moved to Florida, where he has been residing since with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Hulise, former residents of East Liverpool. There are five grandchildren.

In his 86th year, Rev. Benedum is active in the church and makes many weekly calls on shut-ins.

A HIGHLIGHT of last night's program was a talk by the Rev. Clark Allison, pastor of the Wellsville Church of the Nazarene, and remarks by the Rev. H. W. Hill, local pastor, and Miss Marie Wolf. Homer Rutledge was master of ceremonies.

A transister radio was presented to Rev. Benedum.

Clarence Hulise presented a reading honoring Rev. Benedum and Mrs. Emma Durbin, former superintendent of the local church. The group sang "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Durbin.

The music included duets by the Rev. and Mrs. Bernard Younce of Sebring, Nancy Wolf and Tracy Orr, and Thurman Allen and Edward Rice; a solo by Rhonda Landis, and quartet selections by Mrs. Ruby Rutter, Mrs. Becky Bricker, Mrs. Edith Bailey and Mrs. Eleanor Rice.

Mrs. Rutter was chairman of the program. Refreshments were served, with Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. Pauline Walton, Mrs. Eunice White, Mrs. Rose Ella Gabbert and Mrs. Sandra Landis hostesses. Prayer was offered by Rev. Younce.

General 77, Taken

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton who commanded the U.S. Air Force in the Philippines on Pearl Harbor Day, died Thursday at 77. Many persons held Brereton responsible for the destruction of the U.S. planes but Brereton, who with Gen. Billy Mitchell was credited for originating dive bomber tactics, said he had asked permission of superior officers to strike at Japanese bases and was refused.

Brooke Eyes Rioting Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward W. Brooke, the Senate's only Negro member, plans soon to propose immediate creation of a select committee with "the broadest latitude" to investigate causes and possible cures of racial rioting.

"I honestly feel the country is looking to the Senate for leadership in furnishing affirmative action to solve what is certainly one of the most urgent domestic problems we have ever faced," the Massachusetts Republican said in a letter to Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield.

Brooke sent Mansfield a proposed resolution calling the bloody riots in Newark, N.J., "a civil disturbance of such dimension that the entire country is justifiably concerned that both the occurrence and the intensity of such riots are increasing."

"A number of communities in all parts of the United States contain the social, economic and political factors which threaten to lead to further violence," the Brooke resolution declares.

In it, the Massachusetts senator seeks creation of a seven-member select committee on civil disorder to investigate the issue and report to the Senate.

The panel would, Brooke said, consider cause and effect, community attitudes and official response to grievances. It also would recommend to the Senate "measures which may be adopted by the Congress to remedy the conditions which have resulted in civil disorder."

Brooke said he intends to introduce the resolution early next week and hopes it can be adopted speedily — without going to a committee for consideration — "so that the select committee could begin its work immediately."

Report Released On Food Stamps

The Youngstown office of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Consumer and Marketing Service, reports that during June participants in the Food Stamp Program spent $139,608 and the Federal Government contributed $73,462 in bonus or free Federal Food Stamps in Mahoning, Trumbull and Columbiana Counties.

A total of 12,541 persons from 3,651 low - income households benefited from these bonus food stamps by increased food purchasing power, thereby having a more nutritious diet.

The Consumer and Marketing Service said 470 retail food stores in the three counties are authorized to accept and redeem USDA Food Stamps.

Any low - income family interested in learning if it is eligible to purchase and use USDA Food Stamps may contact the County Welfare Department. Any low - income family may be eligible, and it is not necessary to be a welfare recipient.

Trying To Get A Head By Cheaper Haircuts

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Pennsylvania League of Master Barbers says it thinks it could reduce the ranks of hippiedom with cheaper haircuts.

But the only problem, says Vince Grimaldi, the league's executive secretary, is how to make them cheaper.

"We want to work out a system we can use to give an estimate when a Prince Valiant-type walks into the shop," Grimaldi says.

He says barber shops turn away would-be repentant hippies by the score because it's not profitable to cut all that hair at the current maximum rate of $2.25 a head.

ALLERGY TO FISH

Q. Would shots be effective in overcoming allergy to fish? Our 5-year-old daughter breaks out in hives every time she smells fish or when she is in a room in which fish has been cooked. The doctor advises against shots.

A. Most allergists would agree with your doctor. Allergy to fish is one of the most violent types of hypersensitivity. Desensitization by giving injections is not very successful or practical. In such cases, preventive measures (avoidance of contact with fish) may be the only way to avoid trouble.

ACCIDENT - PRONENESS

Q. Are some people "accident-prone"?

A. Various studies have shown that certain individuals have repeated accidents while others have none, despite the fact that, by and large, all were exposed to the same risks. Whether accident-proneness is a major or minor factor in accident rates is not known, but it seems certain that "accident-repeaters" do exist. Better methods and tests are needed to find and evaluate the "accident-prone" individual.

'Floating Edsels'

Pentagon Plans To Fight For Rejected FDL Ships

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some people called them "fiddies." The maritime industry called them "floating Edsels." Finally Congress called the whole thing off.

But the Pentagon served notice Thursday it will fight to restore its programs to build a fleet of fast deployment logistics ships — FDLs — to achieve a jump in rapid military reaction capabilities.

FDLs are swift, massive ships which under designs drawn earlier this year would roam the high seas crammed with 10,000 tons of military supplies, including tanks and trucks, ready to rush to any potential trouble spot.

On foreign shores the supplies would be unified with Army troops airlifted to the scene by the Air Force's new CSA super-sonic transports.

The Pentagon envisioned 30 of the 848-foot, 40,000-ton floating armories to work jointly with a fleet of more than 50 CSAs. Last year Congress authorized $67 million to build the first two, and the Pentagon came back with a fiscal 1968 request for $233 million more for the next five.

But with an unexpected change of heart that stunned the Pentagon, the Senate Armed Services defense subcommittee in March turned thumbs down on the program — and recommended pulling back the $67 million, which hadn't been spent.

"A serious problem," declared Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. He reportedly rushed by limousine to the Capitol immediately after the Senate panel's rejection for a discussion with Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga.

McNamara failed to change many — if any — minds, but the Navy and the Pentagon continued despite congressional reaction with an evaluation of design and construction proposals from three companies.

Thursday McNamara, in an unusual announcement, said Litton Systems Inc. of Culver City, Calif., had been picked to receive the multimillion dollar FDL construction contract — if Congress could be persuaded to change its mind next year. The specific cost would be negotiated with Litton; in case the company's price were too high, the project would be up for open bidding.

Observers viewed McNamara's move as official pronouncement that the Pentagon isn't quitting on its seaborne warehouse program.

The Pentagon faces two major complaints in defending FDLs.

Russell has charged that having speedy, arms-laden ships merely will allow the United States to get involved faster in more foreign disputes.

The maritime industry has opposed the FDL program on grounds private shipping would suffer economically.

To Russell's criticism, McNamara says the rapid response of FDLs will help deter small wars. And when they occur, he said, FDLs would help stop them quickly with fewer casualties, by enabling the United States to get superior forces on the scene more rapidly than now is possible.

Furthermore, he says, FDLs won't compete with private companies in point-to-point shipping — and the Pentagon is willing to accept a legal prohibition to that effect.

Personalities In The News

LONDON (AP) — Lynda Bird Johnson has met Queen Elizabeth II over a cup of tea.

The occasion was an invitation-only garden party for 8,000 persons at Buckingham Palace Thursday.

While her American Secret Service guard stood by in morning coat and Ascot top, the 23-year-old daughter of President Johnson chatted briefly with the queen and sipped a cup of tea.

Miss Johnson came with American Ambassador David Bruce and Mrs. Bruce, her hosts on a three-week private visit to London.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP) — Aviator Jerrie Mock has canceled her planned assault on more world flight records after being injured in an auto accident.

The Columbus housewife, who became the only woman to fly solo around the world in a single-engine plane in 1964, was listed in satisfactory condition in Fayette County Hospital today.

She suffered a broken rib, broken collar bone, cuts and possible internal injuries Thursday when her car went out of control and crashed on rain slick Interstate 71.

Mrs. Mock had planned to try for numerous speed and altitude records this fall in a new plane, but it will be "some time before she can do that now," her husband said.

COLCHESTER, England (AP) — Lance Corporal Michael Jeffries captured the world non-stop marching record early today when he completed 155 miles and kept walking.

However, he failed to eclipse the time — 40 hours — established in the previous record believed to have been set in the 1920's.

Jeffries, attached to the Royal Army Medical Corps, took 44 hours to cover the distance. After breaking the record he marched on another two miles back to camp.

Shirley May Run For Post In California

WOODSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Shirley Temple Black is thinking seriously of running for Congress. The former child movie star expects to announce her decision within two weeks.

Mrs. Black, 39, a Republican, said Thursday she was considering entering a Nov. 14 special election race because State Sen. Richard J. Dolwig, Atherton attorney, had decided against running.

"He was my candidate," Mrs. Black said.

Gov. Ronald Reagan on Thursday set for Nov. 14 the special election to fill the 11th district seat vacated by the death of Rep. J. Arthur Younger. He died June 20 in Washington of leukemia.

If no candidate wins a majority in the Nov. 14 voting, a runoff election will be held Dec. 12.

Three Republicans already have announced for the seat representing San Mateo County, immediately south of San Francisco on the San Francisco Peninsula.

Mrs. Black and her husband, Charles, are active in social and community affairs in the county and Woodside, wealthy suburban area. Black is a business executive. His late father headed Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

Jail Term Ordered In Delinquency Case

LISBON — David Joseph, 36, of 129 E. High St. pleaded guilty Thursday in Juvenile Court to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of two local youths, 15 and 17, by buying beer for them.

Judge Louis Tobin sentenced him to six months in the County Jail, but suspended five months on the condition he does not associate with any child under 18, other than members of his own family, and pays a $100 fine at the rate of $25 per month.

The court gave him permission to serve the sentence on 15 consecutive weekends beginning this evening.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: This morning I had quite a bit of mending to do that would have required seven colors of thread, and you can imagine what a job it would have been changing all those spools and bobbins.

I happened to have some of the new transparent nylon threaded and my machine with this nylon and guess what? My mending was done in a fraction of the usual time.

The nylon is not only stronger than the standard cotton threads, but it blends with the color of each garment so that it can be used for all of your mending without ever changing from one color to the next.

What a time-saver!

MRS. J. TOBIAS.

It's the truth! I've been using it, too, and I do believe it's the greatest invention since the sewing machine itself!

So, gals, it's worth a few cents to try it. Anything to save time and energy.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Don't throw away those old rubber bathmats. Keep them to use on the basement stairs.

They make wonderful treads and the suction cups on the back will help hold them in place after they are tacked down securely.

And since they come in different colors, they will brighten up that dark stairway and perhaps help to prevent an accident.

BARBARA CASTORINA.

DEAR HELOISE: I have found a great new way of serving canned fruit cocktail.

I place a can of it in the freezer for several hours before I need it. When partially frozen, I open both ends of the can, push out the contents and slice.

It's wonderful this way as a salad and, as it's so sweet, it makes a delicious and inexpensive dessert for hot summer nights. Beautiful when served on a lettuce leaf and topped with a dab of mayonnaise.

MRS. C. SLATON.

DEAR HELOISE: This is the way I solved my problem of putting suntan lotion on my back:

I taped a small sponge on the end of a twelve-inch ruler with masking tape, then poured a bit of lotion on the sponge.

With just a few flips of the wrist my back was covered and I was prepared for Mr. Sun.

GLADYS MATLACK.

DEAR HELOISE: Birds were eating the fruit on our young peach tree, so I got four yards of nylon net and spread it over the top of the tree.

To hold the net in place so the wind wouldn't blow it off, I fastened it to the lowest branches with clothespins.

This really did the trick... we are now enjoying those delicious peaches, thanks to the protection the nylon net afforded them.

MRS. MINNIE MARION.

LETTER OF LOVE

DEAR HELOISE: About old highchairs... we've never cut the legs off for a swing or used them for TV chairs.

You'll never guess what we do. We stuff 'em!

Stuff 'em with little fat, sweet foster babies. Blue-eyed, blonde hair — brown eyes, black hair — no hair — no teeth — but do they all fit!

We're on our tenth foster baby. Our six children would find it a mighty empty kitchen if we didn't have a "stuffed" highchair around.

It also works on old cribs, old baby clothes, and most of all, just plain old-fashioned love...

HONEY SHEA.

And, Honey, it's people like you who are tops in my book. May the good Lord bless you and all those sweet babies that are lucky enough to have you for a mother.

HELOISE.

Hackett Given Post In Union

Harold L. Hackett of Kokomo, Ind., will assume office Aug. 1 as fourth vice president of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, succeeding George Barbaree, who advanced to the secretary-treasurer's post.

Hackett, named to the post by the IBOP Executive Board, has served six years as an international representative.

Prior to his appointment to the union post in January 1960, Hackett was president of IBOP Local 26 at Kokomo for five terms and also served as an officer of the Kokomo Central Labor Council and a trustee of the Labor Temple.

He was employed by the American Standard Corp.'s Kokomo plant. Married and the father of two, he has one grandchild.

Hackett's office will be at the IBOP's eastern headquarters in Trenton, N. J.

Barbaree was appointed interim secretary-treasurer a few months ago following the resignation of Charles F. Jordan of Sebring, who had served 26 years. He later was elected to the unexpired term in a special election.

Geneva College Will Expand Its Science Facility

BEAVER FALLS — Geneva College officials today announced that the school will spend $1.2 million on expansion of its science facilities beginning about Aug. 1.

The project will involve the construction of sections two and three of the college's $2 million Science and Engineering Building. Section One of the building was completed and dedicated in November, 1966, at a cost of approximately $800,000.

Sections two and three will be the first project in Phase Two of Geneva's 10-year $15 million development program.

Phase one projects included Metheny Fieldhouse, the Student Center, Clarke and Peace Hall dormitories, the addition and renovation to McCartney Library and section one of the Science and Engineering Building.

Work on the new totally air-conditioned building is expected to take about a year.

3 Drivers Fined In City Collisions

Three motorists involved in East Liverpool traffic mishaps Wednesday night were fined $25 and costs each Thursday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Cherstoff on charges of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

In each instance, the defendant was operating a car which hit the rear of a halted vehicle, police charged.

The defendants were: Albert Jay Howell, 22, of Irondale RD 1, involved in a collision at Dresden Ave. and W. 9th St.; Monte L. Carnegie, 19, of 125 Reynolds St., cited after a crash on St. Clair Ave. at Lincoln Ave.; and Forrest R. Bentz, 18, of Calcutta, cited in a mishap on St. Clair Ave. at Fisher Ave.

Ohio Man, 69, Loses Life In Lake Accident

MASON, Ohio (AP)—A 69-year-old Warren County man drowned in Shadow Lake Thursday night when his fishing raft overturned.

Deputy Sheriff Herb Head said Edward Knauer of near Mason became entangled in the raft's anchor rope. The accident occurred when Knauer and his wife tried to change places on the raft. Mrs. Knauer was rescued.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

QUESTION: "What makes a marriage?"

ANSWER: There are those who would answer that there must be a wedding party, decorations, proper music, everyone must know how to enter the building properly, and everyone should know where they are to stand and what they are to do. But marriage is not determined by these things or even the dress, the audience, the minister, or the building where the marriage takes place.

The Bible says: "Husbands love your wives even as Christ also loved the church and gave himself for it" (Eph. 5:25). In reality, it is the solemn vows made before God by a couple that makes the marriage. In marriage high and holy promises are made which make two people one. "I do promise... as long as we both shall live."

It takes character for two people to be true to their marriage vows. Christ "hallowed and adorned" marriage by His presence at the marriage in Cana of Galilee. In marriages today Christ needs to be sent the first invitation.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Am I a nut or what? I'm a 17-year-old girl who is scared to death of self-service elevators.

I entered a self-service elevator yesterday and was followed by a seedy-looking man who needed a shave and had liquor on his breath. We rode to the 18th floor, just the two of us, and he kept staring at me the whole time.

My heart was in my mouth until we reached the 18th floor. It was the longest elevator ride of my life. My imagination ran wild and I was a nervous wreck by the time I got off.

If you or any of your readers have some advice on how to fend off an attacker in an elevator, please pass it along. — R.S.

Dear R.S.: Do not get into a self-service elevator with a lone man. Wait until someone else comes along or just stand there and let the lone man go up. Then take the car on the next trip.

If you are in a self-service elevator alone and a suspicious-looking man gets on, press the button and get out at the next floor, wait for the elevator to return empty and proceed to your destination.

Dad Needs Help

Dear Ann: This is the first time I've ever written to a newspaper but I no longer can remain silent while counselors tell mothers not to interfere when a father disciplines his child.

Tonight my husband knocked our son off the dining room chair, pulled him into the hall, slammed his head against the wall and threw him up the stairs to his room.

What kind of mother could witness this sort of violence and remain silent? I said plenty, and right in front of the boy, too.

This is contrary to what the counselors advise, but I feel children must know that at least one parent is rational and loves them.

This wild temper of my husband's showed itself before and I stood up for our son. The counselor told me it would have been better had I waited until the child was in bed, then told my husband that he should not have hit the boy so hard.

Please, Ann Landers, say something in your column about this. I need someone on my side. — A MOTHER.

Dear Mother: A mother should not interfere when a father disciplines a child. But what you describe is not discipline, it's brutality — savage behavior, punishable by law.

A father who would slam a child's head against the wall and throw him up the stairs is very sick and out of control. Tell him he must get help or move out and support you and the family.

Every year hundreds of children suffer severe emotional and physical damage at the hands of brutal parents. Some of them die. Don't let this happen to your child.

Diamond Lil

Dear Ann: I'm going to marry a law student next year. He wants to buy me an engagement ring but can spend only $200. A diamond ring for $200 will look like a mounted grain of rice. I can just hear my friends laughing behind my back.

In addition to the cat-fights problem, my sister was married last year and she got a great big rock.

When I told my fiancé I'd rather not have any ring than a teeny one, he looked hurt. I wish I were the noble type who could show a peanut ring with pride. I'm not. Am I wrong? — INSECURE.

Dear Lil: If your fiancé wants to give you an engagement ring, allow him to do it. But why must it be a diamond? Settle on a pearl, or your birthstone.

P.S.: Those dollar signs on your eyeballs are pretty unattractive. Toots. Yich!

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Check On City Housing Plan Set In August

Officials of the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority will return to the Chicago regional office of the Housing and Urban Development agency Aug. 21-22 for further conferences on the progress of plans for 260 units of low-rent housing in East Liverpool.

The discussion on Aug. 21 will cover the plans for a 130-unit high rise building scheduled to be erected in the Moore St.-Claiborne St. area of West End to provide housing for the elderly.

The meeting on Aug. 22 will be the first with the federal agency on the plans for 130 more family-type units which may be erected on a tract off Maine Blvd. to provide housing for low income groups.

Robert F. Beatty, architect, is preparing the plans for the housing for the elderly. HUD checked the plans for the second time in a conference Tuesday at Chicago with representatives of the housing authority. At least one more review will be required before the way is clear for the authority to call for bids on the project.

A $1.9 million loan has been guaranteed by the federal government for the project, which will be erected on a four-acre tract between the Freeway and Dresden Ave.

James N. Porter is the architect for the housing units for low income families. The Aug. 22 discussion will be the first review of the plans with HUD. The authority contemplates that the housing for the low income families will be spread over a wider area, probably in units that will not exceed two stories, in contrast to the eight-story structure for housing for the elderly.

Bank's Role Hit On Arms Loans By Congressman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Henry Reuss says what the government tells the public about arms sales to foreign nations differs from the secret testimony given Congress.

"Someone is trying to fool both the public and the United States Congress," Reuss, D-Wis., said Thursday, shortly after the State Department made public portions of secret testimony before a congressional committee.

Reuss accused the Defense Department of trying to hide the federal Export-Import Bank's role in providing credit for massive foreign purchases of U.S.-produced arms.

He said when Pentagon officials testified before a closed session of the House Banking Committee Monday, they insisted figures they gave on arms loans be kept secret.

Some of the figures made public by the State Department don't jibe with statistics the congressmen were supposed to keep secret, said Reuss, a member of the committee.

After hearing the Pentagon testimony, the committee approved legislation to continue the Export-Import Bank's charter and hike its operating authorization by $4.5 billion.

In listing the new committee chairmen, the Chamber also announced its four major objectives for the new year: Promote the East Liverpool area; stimulate economic growth; improve the business climate, and maintain an active, informed membership.

The Chamber said its work also is aimed at:

Active support of area industries and the free enterprise system.

Shot Bennett Quits Coaching . . .

Several coaching changes were announced this week. One concerned the former East Liverpool and Westminster basketball star, Don (Shot) Bennett, who gave up the head coaching job at Sharon, Pa., to become guidance counselor at the school.

In his new post, Bennett will receive a higher salary. After serving for many seasons as an assistant at Sharon, Bennett had been the head basketball coach for the past two campaigns in rugged Section 3 of the WPIAL.

Last year his tigers compiled an impressive 16-6 record. They were 12-10 his first year.

Bailey With The Dukes Again . . .

CONGRATULATIONS to Al Bailey, another Potter grad, upon his appointment as assistant coach at Duquesne University.

Bailey, who had turned in an outstanding job at Geneva High School, returns to Duquesne and joins a former teammate Red Manning, head coach of the Dukes.

Manning was a senior when Bailey was in his sophomore year at the Bluff.

Bailey starred at Duquesne when the Pittsburgh school was among the top-ranked teams in the country. He played under Coach Duddy Moore and was co-captain with Steve Garay during the 1952-53 season when the Dukes advanced to the semi-finals of the NIT before losing to St. John's.

Only 5-11, Bailey was considered a fine back-court man throughout his high school and college career.

As Duquesne attempts to climb back to the top in college basketball, Bailey's main job will be recruiting and scouting of opponents.

Big Red Seeks Cage Coach . . .

ANOTHER veteran to leave the coaching ranks this week was Walt Owens, who was head basketball coach since 1960 at Steubenville Big Red after serving nine years as an assistant in the Steubenville system.

Owens has been named assistant to the principal at Big Red. Another former Steubenville coach, Ang Vaccaro, long remembered by Potter fans, has been named principal at Steubenville High School.

Vaccaro replaces George Bates, who had served as principal since 1959. Bates resigned after 29 years of school service, to become assistant commissioner of the Ohio High School Athletic Association.

Cheerleaders Sweep Honors . . .

A CHEER for the East Liverpool High School cheerleaders is in order.

Five girls attended the Camp Valley Vista Cheerleading School at Bainbridge, Ohio, and placed first in three categories.

They won first place for cheering ability, the trophy for over-all competition and captured a talent show from a skit written by Linda Alexander, one of the five cheerleaders.

The other cheerleaders at the camp were Jane DeLong, Debbie Emmerling, Susie Williams and Louise McHenry.

Cindy McElhaney, another varsity cheerleader, was unable to attend. The girls were sponsored by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

DAN BALDWIN, ex-Wellsville basketball star, has resigned as assistant basketball coach at Rochester High School, where one-time East Liverpool mentor Jim Harris is head coach. Baldwin will attend West Virginia University this fall to complete work on his master's degree. Dan had turned out several winning jayvee units at Rochester.

BERNIE ALLEN, hitting better lately with the Washington Senators, drove in three runs on a double and single Thursday night, but it came in a losing cause as Detroit won, 8-4.

The Senators, after an eight-game winning streak, are 8½ games off the pace in the American League race.

WATERFORD PARK track announcer John Godfrey is in City Hospital undergoing tests. The voice of Waterford is expected to be away from his duties for several weeks.

Pusateri's Win Minor League Title

Pusateri's made it two straight and captured the Minor League championship with a 4-1 victory over Tri-State Appliance Thursday.

Pusateri's broke a 1-1 tie with a three-run fifth inning to win the title.

Kenny Montgomery was the winning pitcher allowing four hits and striking out nine batters. B. Maltrich only gave up three hits and fanned six in being checked with the loss.

Mike McElroy and Gary Roberts doubled to lead Pusateri's in the hitting department while K. Bell singled twice for Tri-State.

Only One Stroke Separates 10 In Ladies Tourney

LONDON, Ont. (AP)—Ten American girls were locked within one stroke of each other at the top of the standings today going into the second round of Open Golf Championships.

At 70, two strokes under par for the 6,456-yard Sunningdale layout, were Mickey Wright, champion Kathy Whitworth, Carol Mann, Susie Maxwell, Sandra Haynie and Muriel Lindstrom.

Tied at 71 were defending veteran Patty Berg, Gloria Ehret, Sandra Spuzich and Shirley Englehorn.

Braves Slow Cubs; Cards Defeat Reds

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Jackie Brandt already knows it is easier to hit for teammate Don Wilson than against him, and the rest of the National League hitters are quickly learning it, too.

Wilson, a rookie right-hander who pitched a no-hitter a month ago and a three-hitter 11 days ago, cut down New York on two hits Thursday night as the Houston Astros belted the Mets 7-0.

It was his third straight victory and while he has discouraged opposing hitters, his pitching has brought out the best in

Astros' Wilson Turns In 2-Hitter

Brandt. The veteran reserve outfielder, hitting only 237, had six hits in 11 at bats with his only triple and homer and eight of his 10 runs batted in during those games.

"I don't know what it is, but I sure do well when he's pitching," Brandt said.

Brandt drove in four runs Thursday night with a sacrifice fly and the homer and added a double.

Another part-time performer,

Gene Oliver, also had a good night, stroking three singles and a two-run homer as he led Philadelphia over Los Angeles 10-4.

League-leading St. Louis unleashed Julian Javier, Orlando Cepeda and Bob Tolan, who each homered, and whipped Cincinnati 7-3.

Pat Jarvis snapped the Chicago Cubs' five-game winning streak with a four-hitter that lifted Atlanta to a 2-1 victory, and Gaylord Perry broke his own six-game losing string by pitching San Francisco to a 6-1 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Wilson, 22, now 7-5, allowed only singles by Ed Charles in the first inning and Larry Stahl in the ninth. He struck out nine, walked two and hit one and extended his shutout string to 25 innings, breaking the club record of 24 set by Robin Roberts.

The Astros and Brandt made the rest easy. Brandt drove in one of four second-inning runs with his fly and then hit a three-run homer in the fifth off Bob Shaw and later doubled off Shaw.

Oliver's first hit helped the Phillies to a four-run second inning against Claude Osteen, and his homer made it 6-0 in the third. Bobby Wine belted his first homer of the season in the fifth with two on as Larry Jackson, 7-9, breezed.

Javier slammed a three-run shot, Cepeda a two-run blow and Tolan a solo homer as the Cardinals hammered Mel Queen and Don Nottebart and increased their lead to two games over the Cubs.

The Cubs played their game under protest when Ernie Banks hit a short fly to left-center field in the sixth inning with the bases loaded and Glenn Beckert, trying to score from third, was tagged out at the plate after bouncing off catcher Joe Torre. Cub Manager Leo Durocher claimed Torre blocked the plate before he had the ball, thereby interfering with the runner.

The Braves had taken a 2-1 lead in the inning on hits by Hank Aaron and Torre and an infield out after Tito Francona homered earlier.

Perry, 6-11, who had not won since June 10, yielded only seven hits. The Giants gave him a 5-0 lead as Willie McCovey hit a two-run homer.

Nicklaus 1-Stroke Back

Hill Has Early PGA Lead

By BOB MYERS
DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Good-looking Dave Hill, a professional golfer who once managed to record 178 strokes for one round of golf—well, that's the way it came out on his card and he signed it—was in far better circumstances today.

Hill, 30, from the little mountain resort town of Evergreen, 30 miles from Denver, led such heroes of the game as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Billy Casper into the second round of the $150,000 Professional Golfers Association Championship.

Hill got a six-under par 66 Thursday, a record for the site of this 49th PGA title romp, the 7,436-yard, par 36-36-72 Columbine Country Club course.

Nicklaus, the U.S. Open champion, banged out five birdies and then an eagle in a seven-hole span and finished with a 67.

Palmer, seeking his first PGA championship, shot a 70 and was tied with Mike Souchak, now only an occasional tournament performer; Bob Goalby; Don Massengale; Tommy Aaron and lesser known Richard Bassett of Upper Montclair, N.J.

Casper, reporting his clubs had been damaged during a recent Oriental tour, fell back to 75, while defending champion Al Geiberger had a 73.

Hill's famous score came in last summer's Thunderbird. He actually had a 78 in the second round, but somehow it came out 178—and his 36-hole total was 257.

Hill won the Memphis Open in June but otherwise he said he'd captured a lot of nothing in tournament play.

scored a 7-0 victory to eliminate the locals Thursday at North Canton.

Phil Moffett's single in the third inning was the only hit off Starrett who struck out 13 batters with a fine assortment of pitches.

With the American All-Stars losing, East Liverpool's two Little League representatives were eliminated in the first round after Wellsville had defeated the National League All-Stars Wednesday.

How Can I?
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—Please suggest a good homemade solution for cleaning painted walls?

A.—Combine two ounces of borax, one teaspoon of ammonia, and two quarts of water. You'll need no soap. Apply with a soft cloth.

Q.—How can I clean copper utensils?

A.—Mix a cupful of flour and a tablespoon of salt to a paste with vinegar. Rub this over the copper with a soft cloth, then polish with a flannel or chambray. Other metals, their care and cleaning, are dealt with in my new household-hints manual.

Q.—What is an efficient way of keeping mothballs in a drawer or trunk?

A.—Instead of scattering loosely with the clothing and other articles, make up a few tubs from mesh cloth, such as cheesecloth, slip the balls inside, and tie the cloth between

GUESS WHO?

A FEW MEMBERS OF A LARGE FAMILY

QUESTION: What is the difference between a wolf, a coyote and a dog?

ANSWER: The dog family as a whole is called by the scientists Canis. The scientific Latin name of the wolf is Canis lupus, of the coyote Canis latrans, and of the dog Canis familiaris. You can see that these dog-like animals are all closely related. The dog family may have descended from such an ancient mammal as Cynodictis, whose picture we show. A later ancestor was Tomarctus, looking very much like a wolf. Indeed, wolves are the most characteristic members of the family. The coyote is a smaller wolf. The dog is thought to have originated from wolf cubs having been domesticated by cavemen. But, because they are wild, wolves and coyotes continue with little change in appearance. Man has deliberately bred his dogs to develop different characteristics, which fit them for different purposes. Consequently there are many dog varieties, large and small. We picture the fennec and fox as examples of other wild dogs, of which there are quite a few. Keen intelligence, a remarkable sense of smell and physical stamina have made members of the dog family highly successful.

Torrey Kiltw of Othello, Wash., wins this week's grand prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

each one. This makes for easier and less messy handling.

Q.—How can I treat heat marks on my furniture, white marks that have been caused by dishes?

A.—These will often disappear when rubbed with a cloth dampened with camphor oil, peppermint oil, or turpentine. Rub lightly. And another method consists of using finely powdered rottenstone or pumice, or even cigar ashes. Rub any one of these ingredients lightly over the stain in the direction of the grain, wipe off with a cloth dipped in plain linseed oil, then polish.

Subcommittee Meets

Tax Boost Plans Develop For Ohio Senate's Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tax increase proposals now before a Senate subcommittee probably will "jell" before the end of next week, the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee says.

Chairman Michael J. Maloney R-7 Cincinnati said Thursday before the legislature adjourned for the weekend he was "pushing to have a bill by that time."

He is a member of the three-member Ways and Means subcommittee working on various proposals which include an increase from 3 per cent to 4 per cent in the sales tax and extension of its base, among other things.

The administration is asking for tax boosts that would bring in at least $252 million in the next two years to be earmarked for the school foundation program and higher education.

The original tax package proposed a 1 per cent tax on gross receipts. This was to be counted upon for about $200 million of the new revenue. But reaction from retailers and consumer groups dealt a death blow to that proposal, subcommittee members conceded.

The most likely alternative is a boost in the sales tax and extension of it to include beer, cigarettes, and some services such as dry cleaning and parking.

Routine floor sessions wrapped up the legislative work week as the House postponed votes on two controversial measures. One would require competitive bidding on purchases by counties of more than $2,000 and clarify the right of the governor to declare martial law.

Sponsors of the license tag measure explained that the date was moved up to March 1 two years ago in an effort to prevent a last minute rush for plates, which must be displayed by April 16.

Deputy registrars who sell the tags complained, however, that the extra two weeks did nothing to prevent the rush and only added to their administrative and personal expenses.

Rep. Carlton E. Davidson R-26 Lawrence won House approval of a measure which requires psychiatric examination of persons convicted of child abuse. The measure now goes to the Senate.

Senators approved House bills permitting county commissioners to increase the membership of county hospital boards of trustees and authorizing the Agricultural Research and Development Center at Wooster to lease land to the U.S. government for research facilities.

Sen. Charles J. Carney D-33 Youngstown won senate passage of a proposal raising from $3,000 to $10,000 the value a person's estate must have before he can be held liable for support of relatives in mental hospitals.

Crucible Plans To Close Most Of Foreign Outlets

PITTSBURGH — The Crucible Steel Co. is reported ready to terminate most of its foreign operations.

According to sources here, President John C. Lobb has decided to retain only the profitable Canadian subsidiary and a few sales - warehouse facilities in England and Australia.

Among the plants expected to go is that at Milan, Italy, which employs about 600. The plant, called Acciaierie Crucibile Vanzetti, makes stainless bars and tool steels.

In its last annual report Crucible had disclosed its "loss for the year was reduced by more than 25 per cent from the preceding year."

Mexico officially ended its custom of taking a daily siesta in 1946.

City Hospital Treats 13 In Emergencies

Schools' Funds Hit $3,696,758

The total does not include the state's share of contributions to the two school retirement systems.

Of the total, the East Liverpool School District received $798,244. Wellsville's share was $332,956.

Other districts and the amounts received were Columbiana County, $75,343; Beaver Local, $505,308; Fairfield - Waterford, $124,770; Southern Local, $232,895; United Local, $237,823; Columbiana Village, $203,265; Leetonia, $208,579; Lisbon, $273,338; Salem, $374,738; and East Palestine, $329,493.

Johnson Hits House Action On Rats Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and federal housing chief Robert C. Weaver denounced as cruel and unjustified House rejection of a measure aimed at attacking rats in urban slum breeding grounds.

Johnson, in a statement shortly after Thursday's 207-176 vote to sidetrack consideration of a two-year, 40-million rat eradication measure, urged House reconsideration of the administration-backed legislation.

"We are spending federal money to protect our livestock from rodents and predatory animals," said the President. "The least we can do is give our children the same protection that we do our livestock."

Weaver, secretary of Housing and Urban Development, called the House vote "thoughtless heartless action" that "victimized the poor—and this time the helpless."

Opponents of the bill said action should be left to state and local authorities.

While Weaver pledged that the administration would press for reconsideration of the bill, sources gave it little chance for another go-around in the House.

"That vote is pretty discouraging. I don't think there's any chance of changing enough votes," said one administration source.

The same official predicted the administration would pin its hopes for eventual passage of the rat control bill on the Senate, where the measure is part of a group of proposed amendments to housing laws.

Even if that measure clears the Senate, however, the House would have another shot at killing the rat eradication section.

5 New Aspirants Ask Ballot Places

Five new candidates filed overnight with the County Election Board to seek township and school board offices in the Nov. 7 general election.

Elinor J. Bretz and Robert Unger both filed for posts on the Board of Education of the Fairfield - Waterford School District.

The other new aspirants are: LeRoy Harsh, for clerk of West Township; Harry C. Hanna, for trustee of Hanover Township, and Clyde E. Bjorkman, for trustee of Knox Township.

Miss Rebecca Resnick, director of elections, said it was the busiest single day for candidate filings since petitions began to be received early this year. The newest entries pushed to 43 the number now filed for nonpartisan voting in townships, school districts and villages under 2,000 population. The filing deadline is Aug. 9.

Lisbon Troop To Go Where The Action Is

LISBON — Thirteen Boy Scouts of Lisbon Troop 92 which carries the slogan, "The Action Troop," will leave Saturday on a nine-day expedition to Algonquin Provincial Park in Ontario, Canada.

Scoutmaster Dean Senefes, Assistant Scoutmaster Paul (Rusty) Barnes and David Williams, troop committee chairman, will drive the vehicles, leaving the First Methodist Church at 7 a. m.

Senefes said they will take two canoes and rent three more at the park. They will spend Saturday night at the Canadian Boy Scouts' Crooked Creek Camp near Toronto, attend a church at Barrie and reach the park about 3:30 p. m.

Eight of the older Scouts will make a three-day canoe trip while the others stay at base camp for short hikes in the park. When they return, the entire party will take the trail for an extended hike.

On the return trip, the troop will spend Saturday night at Savages Campgrounds near Niagara Falls, Canada, and arrive home Sunday evening.

Gov. Smith Asks Local Support In Vietnam Conflict

MORGANTOWN (AP) — Gov. Hulett Smith, speaking before the 1967 State American Legion Convention here, made a plea for perseverance on the local front in this country's involvement in the Vietnam conflict.

The Governor asserted that withdrawal will not bring peace. "You do not satisfy the appetites of an aggressor by handing him pieces of territory. We tried it with Hitler, and it didn't work," Smith noted.

He implored the citizens of West Virginia to support President Johnson in his efforts to secure a lasting peace in Asia.

"I am convinced that Hanoi thinks it can win this war, not on the battlefields of Vietnam, but in Washington, D.C., and Charleston, W.Va., and Morgantown.

"They think they can divide—by public opinion — and conquer," Smith said.

He termed the Vietnamese war a story of tyranny. "tyranny initiated in the north against the people of South Vietnam."

Smith added that the United States does not want to escalate the war, but, he said, "I must tell you that I feel it is absolutely essential that we persevere."

Riot Victim Help Eyed By Cincinnati Leaders

CINCINNATI (AP) — City Councilman Gordon Rich says he'll try to get something done for the businessmen and their employees who suffered because of this summer's race riots.

"It is high time that council and the administration give just as much attention and consideration to those who were injured by the recent riots as we have given those who have tried to justify the lawlessness," Rich said Thursday.
